(J Med Internet Res 2022;24(11):e44334) doi: 10.2196/44334

In “Understanding the Social Mechanism of Cancer Misinformation Spread on YouTube and Lessons Learned: Infodemiological Study” (J Med Internet Res 2022;24(11):e39571), the authors made the following changes.

1. The Acknowledgments section was inadvertently excluded in the originally published article.

In the corrected version, the following statement has been added under the new Acknowledgments section.

This study was supported by the National R&D Program for Cancer Control through the National Cancer Center (NCC) funded by the Ministry of Health & Welfare, Republic of Korea (HA21C0048).

2. In the originally published article, Affiliations 7 and 8 were incorrectly presented as two separate affiliations.

In the corrected version, Affiliation 7 is revised as follows to present the original two affiliations:

Yonsei Cancer Center, Yonsei University Health System, Seoul, Republic of Korea

The updated list of affiliations and its attribution to the authors are as follows:

Ho Young Yoon¹; Kyung Han You²; Jung Hye Kwon^{3,4,5}; Jung Sun Kim³; Sun Young Rha^{6,7}; Yoon Jung Chang⁸; Sang-Cheol Lee⁹
