(J Med Internet Res 2022;24(6):e39705) doi: 10.2196/39705

In “Predictors of Health Information–Seeking Behavior: Systematic Literature Review and Network Analysis” (J Med Internet Res 2021;23(7):e21680) the authors noted three errors.

1. In the originally published article, Reference 11 was incorrectly published as follows:

Cole C. Looking for information: a survey of research on information seeking, needs, and behavior (4th edition). Donald O. Case and Lisa M. Given. Bingley, UK: Emerald Group Publishing, 2016. 528 pp. $82.95 (hardcover). (ISBN: 9781785609688). J Asso Inf Sci Technol 2016 Dec 21;68(9):2284-2286. [doi: 10.1002/asi.23778]

The correct reference is a book and has been updated as follows:

Case DO, Given LM. Looking for information: a survey of research on information seeking, needs, and behavior (4th edition). Bingley, UK: Emerald Group Publishing; 2016.

2. The in-text citation for reference 11 incorrectly mentioned the year as 2002 in the following sentence:

Other known models from the information science perspective include the Comprehensive Model of Information Seeking, which looks at information carrier characteristics, antecedents, and information-seeking actions [10] and the book by Case in 2002 about the research on information-seeking needs and behaviors [11].

The correct year for the current edition of the book is 2016 and the sentence has been updated as follows:

Other known models from the information science perspective include the Comprehensive Model of Information Seeking, which looks at information carrier characteristics, antecedents, and information-seeking actions [10] and the book by Case in 2016 about the research on information-seeking needs and behaviors [11].

3. In affiliations 1 and 2 of the originally published article, the city was incorrectly mentioned as 'The University of Sydney'. This has been corrected to 'Sydney,' and the correct list of affiliations is as follows:

Ardalan Mirzaei^{1}, BPharm, MPhil, GCertEdStud (Higher Ed); Parisa Aslani^{1*}, BPharm, MSc, PhD, GCertEdStud (Higher Ed); Edward Joseph Luca², BA, MBA; Carl Richard Schneider^{1*}, BN, BPharm, PhD, PGCert (Higher Ed)*
